INTRODUCTION

PURPOSE

The purpose of this Job Description Handbook is to document the procedures and intended operations of the Southern California Quarterly Meeting and to provide guidance to individuals who assume the various roles described herein.

HISTORY

The first edition of this Handbook was produced in 1981. It was updated in 1995 soon after the Quarterly Meeting was incorporated and approved its initial Bylaws. It was partially updated in 2000 and again in 2002. In 2006 it was completely revised, updated, and expanded. In 2021 it is in the process of being revised again.

ORGANIZATION

Committees are described first, arranged in alphabetical order after the Executive (Clerks') Committee, which also serves as the Board of Directors for the Corporation.

Officers and other individual positions are described in the second section, also arranged in alphabetical order after the Clerk of the Quarter, who also serves as the President of the Corporation.

The last section, which is new to this edition, contains official documents of the Corporation, i.e. the Articles of Incorporation and most current Bylaws.

SECTION 1
STANDING COMMITTEES

EXECUTIVE CLERKS' COMMITTEE (ECC)

FUNCTION

The ECC of the Quarter, along with the Clerk of the Quarter, has responsibility for the overall operation of the Quarterly Meeting. RESPONSIBILITIES

The ECC is responsible for:

1. Overseeing the planning of Quarterly Meeting gatherings, including the schedule of events.
2. Preparing the agenda for plenary sessions and Meetings for Business of the Quarter.

4. Making decisions on behalf of the Quarter when authorized by the Quarterly Meeting to do so, or in matters that are within already established policy guidelines and that cannot wait for Quarterly Meeting action.
5. Naming the nominees to the nominating committee.
6. Preparing, distributing, and updating the Job Description Handbook of the Southern California Quarterly Meeting, with input from those affected and/or interested.

COMPOSITION: The ECC is composed of the Clerk of the Quarter, Assistant to the Clerk, Recording Clerk, Treasurer, Database Clerk, Publisher of the newsletter, and the Clerks of all standing committees of the Quarter.

TERM OF OFFICE: Terms of members are determined by appointment to the various positions. It is desirable that not all terms of ECC members expire at the same time.
